

Over 150,000 Kentuckians will be incentivized to join the workforce with Kentucky HEALTH!

BUSINESSES CAN TAP INTO THIS TALENT PIPELINE

- Kentucky HEALTH, the Commonwealth's new Medicaid program, requires some individuals to participate in at least 80 hours each month of employment or community engagement activities, such as seeking employment, working, participating in job training, or enrolling in education.
- Over 150,000 Kentuckians will be incentivized to participate in their communities or join the workforce to retain health benefits through Kentucky HEALTH.
- Businesses have the opportunity to fill open positions through this talent pipeline.
- Kentucky HEALTH recipients will have access to job opportunities and training through Kentucky Career Centers (KCCs) and Adult Education resources to improve employability skills and gain industry-specific knowledge.

BUSINESSES CAN FILL OPEN POSITIONS

- Interview and hire from this new pool of candidates.
- Continue to work with your local KCC Business Services Team.
- Maintain current processes for conducting relevant pre-employment assessments, such as background checks, drug tests, or skills tests.
- Onboard and train individuals from this pipeline, just as with any new employee.

HOW TO ACCESS THIS TALENT PIPELINE

Many resources are available to help businesses recruit new talent from this pipeline:

- Speak with your local KCC Business Services Team about additional resources to support business workforce needs.
- Reach job seekers by entering open job positions into the state's job posting repository at FocusTalent.ky.gov.
- Attend a monthly Stakeholder Advisory Forum. View the schedule at KentuckyHEALTH.ky.gov on the Resources page.
- Learn more about the Kentucky HEALTH program and sign up for Kentucky HEALTH news by visiting KentuckyHEALTH.ky.gov.

See the back side of this page for KCC Business Services Team contact information!